Hi I'm looking for a bunny for my 9 y/o daughter. And yes I'm fully aware that at her age I will have to help a lot. I don't mind, it's my idea to get her a bunny. (I love them too lol)

It has to be young! Just weaned would be awesome! I would prefer a Holland lop but am not too picky just as long as it's a breed that is good with kids. It has to be a male as I don't want the bunny to become aggressive as it matures.

I live in Southington and am willing to travel up to a half hour.

If you have any baby buns please email
