A Chicago based pop punk band is looking for a bassist. Our style is influenced by The Ramones, The Riverdales, The Groovie Ghoulies, Screeching Weasel and Off With Their Heads to name a few. We have a practice space and a weekly practice session. We are looking for someone who can easily gel with the band. We don't take ourselves seriously and you shouldn't either. We are looking to have fun with our music. We have no need for drama or troublemakers. We are in our early 30s to early 40s.

If you are interested, respond to this listing with some information about yourself. If you have any examples of your singing, feel free to send that along. We look forward to meeting.
