

Nanny looking for a new family

Location Pennsylvania https://www.genclassifieds.com/x-701310-z

Hi my names Alisha

I'm looking for anyone who needs childcare full-time during the week and weekends. I'm currently working in a child care center right now, but am looking for a great family to care for. I'm taking all ages newborn-13, am reliable, dependable and flexible. Pay will be determined between us and whatever works out and is affordable for you. I would love to hear back from you if you have any questions feel free to email me.

Thanks Alisha!
