One of Fremont's finest vintage brick buildings with the original character in tact. Located steps from the Woodland Park zoo, this property is situated majestically on the ridge that overlooks Puget Sound and the city to the south, and the Olympic mountains to the west. Available is a large light and bright south facing view unit with wonderful vintage charm and character including hardwood floors, original mahogany woodwork, crystal doorknobs, and tile bathroom floor. This unit features a large living room, a small extra room for sleeping/office/large walk-in, an eating area and has ample closet space. This unit also includes a good sized storage unit and bicycle storage.
