I'm looking for someone who's up for giving some discrete massages. A combination of therapeutic with a sensual side would be ideal. Assuming things go well, meeting as often as 2-3 times per month could happen if our schedules sync.

I'm a clean cut professional. I travel quite a bit for work, but when I'm in town, I need to relax and recover from too many miles on planes.

I don't have age/race hangups. I'm a 40 year old white guy, so if you're comfortable with my age/race, we'll be fine.

Your relationship status doesn't matter to me. I'm willing and capable of being as discrete as you need to be.

If you're good with your hands and could use some extra cash, let's chat. An email with a little info on what appeals to you about my ad would be a great start. A pic wouldn't hurt but definitely isn't necessary. If you can/can't host, that would be worth knowing. And, if there are certain days of week/times of day that tend to work on your end, let me.
