Hi,

My 1st animation played on NBC's "LATE NIGHT WITH CONAN O'BRIEN" on NBC in 2008 and now I've made it a career. (My degree is in Film.)

I love doing music videos. Here's my most recent one for The Sickstring Outlaws:

"Sounds Like A Country Song":

"Black As All That" (lyric music video):

Here's a more psychedelic offering:

I usually charge from $200-$1000 per finished minute and require a simple agreement that spells out the terms of the project, and 1/2 the fee upfront (usually paid via PayPal or check).

As I create portions of your animation, I post them on youtube (as a private entry) for you to approve. When the animation is done to your complete satisfaction, I collect the balance, assign all rights to you and dropbox the finished 'toon to you.

Happy Music,
