I AM NOT LOOKING FOR A HAND OUT

I have just fallen on hard times.

I am a hard working skilled tradesman willing to accept any type off work from walking the dog to raking the yard. I'm just tiered of being taken advantage off.

I have a 5 year old son and another one due next month, the power is turned off and i need some small quick jobs to turn it back on. I'm a skilled professional, and own all my own equipment and tools for any type of repair or remodeling project.

I have recently been working for a general contractor, who is now being sued for cutting corners and not complying with insurance specifications. I was in a bad financial situation and he took advantage of that. My wife is pregnant and not working so my family is relying on me to pull through this rough patch.
