2 year old Redbone coon hound needs room to run. I don't have the land or the time required for this energetic pup. She is Vet checked healthy, spayed, all shots up to date, micro chipped. She is going to require someone who has the time and patients to spend with her. She is great with the kids and would make a great bird dog. There is a rehoming fee of $350 to make sure she is going to a committed.
