If you are willing to exchange certain services for rent, please respond to this ad. I am a clean, very attractive, easy-going guy and would welcome the opportunity to open my home to the right female housemate. You can have your own large bedroom with a large bathroom and full access to the rest of my luxury home. Close to public transportation routes. Very quiet and safe neighborhood. I work every day and am willing to assist you with some things if needed. I also drive so can help with transportation too. This arrangement would be ideal for a young woman who is homeless or looking to get out of a bad situation and needs a new start, or just wants to save money and get on her.
