"Hello,??We are group of talented web designers and programmers who have started our own business since about a year and half. Currently we are building our portfolio and looking for unique ideas to work on. If you think you have great idea and need us to bring them to reality, then give us a call and lets discuss. We offer very affordable rates and also have partnership program for start ups. We also can set up payment plans as well. So don't let limited budget stop you from building your idea into reality.? Currently we work with custom websites, native iOS and Android apps, cross platform mobile apps, custom softwares for businesses, social networking type database driven websites, e-commerce stores, etc. We can build it as long as it is logical and data has logical flow. We love to share our work with you, we have worked on numerous websites and few mobile apps. If you like to see some examples, let us know.??For more information, please contact us at the phone number or email address in the picture. we look forward to hearing from you.?"
