It breaks my heart to post an ad concerning my two loving pets but it must be done.

I have a beautiful female american bulldog/German shepherd mix (2yrs) named Mila & a male Rottweiler/Lab mix named Rocco that I need to find a new home for.

Although Rottweiler's are known to be aggressive dogs, Rocco is no such dog. He is the most loving dog I have ever met. And Mila can be such a lady.... She's strong and very independent. I would prefer to keep them together.

They need a home with lots of back yard space and an owner who enjoys going on long walks.

If you believe you are the right match for my two lovelies please reach out to me. There will be a small rehoming fee.

Thank you & God.
