Looking for the living, breathing POS that ran into my car and took off.

Halloween night on I-10 near superdome.
Obviously drunk and veering through traffic quickly in the rain to get away. How he didnt ram 2 or 3 more cars escaping is beyond me.

He was in a fairly distinct vehicle. Older blue jeep wrangler with a grill gaurd and yellow kc lights on front, lifted with off roading tires.

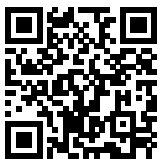

Middle aged white male, tall, overweight, mid length graying hair, facial hair. Enjoys sliding around the interstate in rain plowing cars.

I would very much appreciate a tip on who,where,when. Thanks
