Hi, I'm Jack no magic beans or boxes, just Jack. I love to play with other dogs no matter how big, small, old, or young. I would love to live in a home that has another dog. I love attention and petting. I like adults, teenagers, dogs, and cats. My beautiful pointed ears stand out nicely to either side of my ruggedly handsome face. I am short and stocky like a Corgi and have the aristocratic bearing of a Chihuahua. I am very cute. I am 5 years old and weigh about 25 pounds. Did I mention I have beautiful ears? I walk well on a leash. I will sleep in a crate if necessary but I would prefer being near you. I love attention and petting. Wouldn't you like to adopt a sweet, quite, smart, adorable little Corgihuahua with beautiful ears?

Reduced fee of $90 (since he was already neutered) includes microchip, vaccines, negative heartworm test, and current on flea/tick prevention.
