I have an 8 month old short haired domestic male cat that is free to a good home.
 I work entirely too much and it is not fair to him to have to be alone all day.

He is white with orange patches and he loves to sit in front of the window during the day and loves to sit in your lap. He's VERY friendly.
 He has had his first set of shots, and has been dewormed and has zero fleas. He is not yet neutered though. His name is Jack.

Jack comes with a little bit of food, both dry and wet, a closed litter box, and a small cat carrier. Please email or text if interested. I am in South Everett. Serious inquires only.
