Classical, Acoustic & Electric Guitar Instruction with Gregg Jordan.

Rock, Pop, Classical, Folk, Blues, Jazz, etc.

All Levels & Ages.

Learn from a patient, supportive, experienced, highly qualified guitar instructor.

Lessons are individually tailored to meet your needs. We'll take what you already love about music and build on that. In the process, you will discover that you have practically unlimited potential for musical growth. I'll help you to develop the skills you need to access that potential.

I feel that lessons should be low stress and high enjoyment, so that is the atmosphere I try to create and work from for your lessons. I think you will find that you learn best when you're relaxed and having fun.

After growing up in the Burlington area, I spent 20 years in San Francisco, where I founded, owned and directed the Sunset Academy of Music, and taught hundreds of students to play the guitar. In 2007 I relocated back to my home state of Vermont, and have been teaching privately here since. I am currently interested in taking on new students. I enjoy teaching beginners as well as advanced students. I have a Master of Music Degree from the San Francisco Conservatory of Music, and extensive experience teaching children, teens, and adults.
