I am looking for someone that would be a daughter to me and my husband , someone I could talk to and laugh with, someone to go for walks with and spend time together. I just want to help a nice intelligent girl , who would like to have a traditional family that will bring her joy and be a blessing to her, please email me.

A little bit about me:

I am an old-fashioned style woman. 50y.o. Caucasian. I have a traditional drama-free family. I do not understand these new sexual 'trends'. I am not religious fanatic, but I believe in what Scripture is saying. I want to become a mother for the single American girl (fit better to our family - Caucasian, maybe Russian speaking) who never in her life had a true mother, who could become her best friend.

(To prevent offers from perverts : No! I am not a sugar mommy, and I am not sexy mama... People, what happened to you?... What happened to the world?)

I have a son, I have a granddaughter, I was a guardian for my youngest sister many years ago. MY children grew up and live in another country with their own families.

My husband and I decided to be parents again (it is not about paper adoption, it is about real parent-daughter relationships) for an American girl who would like to call someone mom and dad. So simple...

* if you are pregnant or have a small child/twins , don't worry. We could become the great grandparents for your baby :)
