Please understand I am 24 and in need of some extra income, my job is commission work and only get paid at the end of month I need to pay for my rooming and board which is $100 a week not much however I don't get paid each week and I also pay for my food what little I can afford which the money goes to it's been difficult to make the week at times. I do not want to loose my room otherwise I'll loose my job too and be homeless.

I am not asking for much if anyone is kind enough to give me a small part time job, cleaning or washing windows anything I would be grateful to hear that someone needs me for a small job or anything really just to pay for my weekly rent of $100.

I am skilled but not experienced much except for computers and softwares (OS, python, C++) and keeping clean around my room. Please call or text me at anytime I can work days do not.
