

700 Single Mother Looking For Female Roommate

Location Kentucky

Disclaimer I haven't actually found a place yet!!

I am currently living with my ex, and I am ready to move out! I have a 15 month old son, I work as a property manager in Florence.

I am searching for a Female roommate to share a house with.

Someone who has a steady job who can afford basic things like bills, rent and whatnot. Drug free. Smoke outside if you smoke (I do.) Clean background and okay with proving it. I definitely can prove it as well :)

I'm pretty chill. I'm dating. My ex's mom will be at the house to watch my son during the day...

I am looking for a 3/br home to share. I like condo/apartment living. I've looked into steeplechase and columbus on weatherington.

I have dining table and washer and dryer.
Maybe a tv! lol

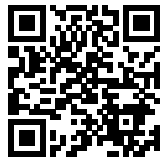

Please email me if you are interested. I'm bad at replying to texts.
