I'd like to make a self defense video. Will be short, around 5 min. A woman will be testing how effective groin strikes are for self defense situations by actually doing it. The kicks and knees can be fake if you would be more comfortable doing it that way, otherwise just light with padding. She'll be pleasantly surprised how effective it is when he falls to the ground completely disabled from one kick or knee (all acted out on my part but made to look real). Looking for a curvy white woman any age with a big butt. Reply with at least one full body.
