f/s is a 2002 f150 rwd with 5.4L 87k miles. tan leather interior. has a 3in lift kit and exhaust catback on it, remote start and a hard fiberglass bed cover. has 305/75/16 tires. Everything works great, all windows doors, sun roof, etc no leaks.

The trans was bad, so i put in a "built race" trans i got from craigslist, turns out that the clutches are shot in that "race trans" (i quote it because previous owner built it and then pulled it from a turbo 5.4 to go manual, i can provide more info about this trans if asked to), so will need new clutches. It lost 4th and OD, and slips in 2nd but the truck will still drive, the torque converter is still good. the roof has some light surface rust from paint fading away and you can see that in the pics, but no leaks. the engine runs great and strong. Driver side nerf bar has broken off, and I have it laying around. I was going to remove the passenger side, just never got around to it. Has a new fuel pump and new sway bar links.

Price is 6200 OBO, willing to move some because of the trans. Only trades I'm interested in right now is a 96 eddie bauer bronco and cash, or something ford with a turbo.
