

Sr. Designer Needed to Help Build World

Location Maryland
<https://www.genclassifieds.com/x-713819-z>

As Sr. Designer (Visual & Interaction) on the Commerce design team, you will collaborate directly with a talented cross-functional team to ideate, communicate, and define experiences that both delight users and generate tens of millions of dollars.

As part of a larger design community, you will work with a global design group that respects and celebrates the value of design, design thinking, and design process. You will collaborate with designers both locally and globally to elevate the standard of design across the organization while being exposed to bleeding-edge concepts and technology.

Qualified Applicants will have: a driven, efficient, collaborative work style; outstanding visual style with a keen attention to detail; the ability to act as a leader who can oversee and lead multiple projects simultaneously; a deep understanding of the latest design trends, processes, and practices; and the ability to effectively communicate design thinking and output.
