OC/LA :Hey guys Im a 20 year old actress, model, singer/ songwriter. I recently recorded my first single and LOVED it but dont have the ability to do that every time or make that kind of music on my own. Ive never had any training but have sang my entire life. I like singing music like ed sheeran/ death cab/ skinny love. I have an indie/ folk voice people say. Its very unique. I also rap. Im asking for people between the ages of 18-28 because its gonna be a cool "hip" and kind of want us to have a rad image.

Im looking for guitarists/ drummer/ piano and maybe even someone who can play the banjo/ violin and a male who can harmonize would be pretty shnazzy. I wanna get something together right away so we can start practicing and eventually book some gigs!

text me if interested with a headshot/or recent picture along with experience and I would love to chat.
