Need someone to assist my high school son with homework and organization. Let me be perfectly clear: I DO NOT NEED A PROFESSIONAL TUTOR. I need someone with a positive attitude and excellent organizational skills who is willing to motivate my son and and keep him on task. I would expect 1-2 hours four days weekly after school. Tutoring would be in my Columbus home, although the library or another public place is also possible. I am willing to pay a bonus for successful grading period outcomes. This would be a good job for college students or someone looking for supplemental income. Please contact me by text or email, and I will call you back with more details. Serious inquires only please.
