Hi....

First off a little about me...
I am single.
Own my own home and car.
Live alone.
Great career.
Easy going.
Laid back.
No criminal record.

I am looking for someone to do some very light housework.
Mainly vacuuming the living room, sweeping the kitchen floor and throwing a few dishes into the dishwasher.

I am looking for someone willing to do the work either in their bra and panties, topless or completely nude....PAID IMMEDIATELY IN CASH!

If you think you might be open to making some very quick and easy money, tell me a bit about you and include a few face pics.

We can discuss the details.

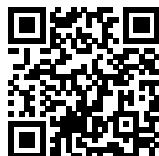

Please tell me your thoughts on what you feel your hourly pay should be.
And please include a few face pics.

Again....

Please only respond if you are at the very least genuinely interested in this opportunity.

And your response goes straight to my phone so I will get back to you immediately.

If this posting is still up, I am definitely still looking! So there is definitely no need to email me asking if I am still looking. :)
