Great Rugged Motorcycle Jacket - would definitely protect from weather and a lot of road rash! These Black Hills Jackets are crazy tough and will last and look like new for years. New these sell for around $400+. SIX pockets total with easy access.

- Regular collar or Snapped
- Action Vented back
- Three exterior zippered pockets
- Zippered sleeve ends for wind protection
- Quilted FULL REMOVABLE lining with sleeves - NOT just vest - for Extra Warmth
- Three interior pockets that can be accessed through the lining
- YKK zippers / center front zipper heavy duty

Here's a partial review by an Owners of a Black Hills Jacket:

All the jacket one needs

I've had this jacket now for 4 years. If I were to take it out of the closet and show it to you you'd swear it's brand new. I ride all-year-round, sun, rain, hail, sleet and cold. I've slept in this jacket on the ground, rolled it and bungee-corded it to the fender and it just keeps taking the abuse with zero signs of wear. As tough as I've made it out to be (it really is!), it's some of the most pliable leather you'll feel when you get it.

Not stiff at all and no breaking-in time necessary. ... I'll be long dead and someone else will be using it for many years before I have to pass it to whomever I part.

It may be getting a good deal - it was made for a couple of years and is in a better condition looks like it should still have tags on it. Please email with any questions and thanks for your.
