So I'm gonna try to quote Trumps statement that scared the life out of me. He has said many scary things but this one convinced me we would be doomed if he ever gets even a seat in state politics. He proclaimed "raising minimum wage can't happen, it would make us unable to compete in the global market.. We need to aim for the jobs at the top or work twice as hard but can't depend on more per hour". Can we all be Drs and lawyers ? Can we all work 80 hrs a week and raise functional children's? This is the rhetoric of a man that is clueless about life in the middle class or poor sectors. And in the same breathe he proclaimed to round up 5 million illegal aliens and fly them home. Anyone that supports this guy is out of their mind and I can't even believe this country has more than one guy that thinks this way. He believes giving more to the rich will work ( even though it's proven not to) . He's a scary man whom given power will stomp on anyone that isn't in his.
