I just got a baby bearded dragon and I can no longer keep him do to my apartment complex not allowing reptiles. I'm being told I can be evicted and I'm very sad about having to do this. He's only a few months old and such a sweet heart! He spends a lot of his time outside the aquirim with me. He's a fantastic starter reptile. I just bought his aquirim and everything for about $300 I'm only asking for a $200 re-homing fee with everything. Lamps, temp gage, food and water bowls, cricket keeper, crickets, worms, wood, inside stand and the base for the aquirim. I'd like to find him a good home! In the picture he seems big but he is only 6 inches long so he is still a!
