About a year ago I started making these "good vibe" posts twice a week where I offered out good vibes to anyone who wanted them. I started doing this at a really low point for me where I felt very depressed.

I got to this point where I said, "no matter what happens to me and my life, I will NOT be a waste. I may live out my life depressed and miserable, but I will be useful to this world and others."

I didn't feel like I could do much for others, but the least I could do was send others good vibes, prayers, positive intention, or whatever name it's called. No matter how bad I felt from day to day, I COULD DO THAT.

So I have been doing that now, and it has really made a big impact on myself, and from what I have heard, a few others as well.

All you have to put in the email is your name, and I will do my best to open my heart and send truth in your direction, in whatever way that should show up for you. If you want to include a story or anything else, that is fine too.

If you want to join me in this experiment, let me.
