Are you:

- African American (meaning that at least one of your parents/caregivers is of African descent and was born in the United States).
- 18 to 24 years old?
- Willing to answer questions about how your parents/ guardians talked to you about race and racism, your thoughts, feelings, and experiences related to race and racism, and your feels about and participation in social action.

If you answered yes to all three of these questions, please consider participating in a research survey on ways that African American parents/caregivers talk to their youths about race and racism impacts their youths' racial identity, thoughts about race and racism, and thoughts and involvement in social action.

The researchers in charge of this study (Protocol Number 16.086.01) are Dana L. Collins and Dr. Janet E. Helms. This study is being conducted online and through Boston College. I invite you take a few minutes to complete the survey (takes about 25-35 minutes).

As a token of appreciation for participating, you are eligible to enter a raffle to win one of ten $20 amazon.com gift cards!!!

You may open the survey consisting of the informed consent and measures in your web browser by clicking or copying and pasting the link below:
