Diane Postell is as dedicated to teaching as she is to performance. A music teacher in various capacities, Diane Postell has the knowledge, experience, and the talent to develop and strengthen your own individual voice to its full potential. She creates an environment of support and encouragement allowing artists to feel nurtured. Postell has a holistic approach to singing; it encompasses the mind, body and soul. She welcomes student participation and input during a lesson. She recognizes that every artist is an individual so success is dependent on individual goals challenged and attained.

Ms. Postell has worked for 15 years as a voice coach. Her clients have included Amelia Rose Blaire (Willie on True Blood), Patty Stanger (Millionaire Matchmaker), Kriss Mincey (American Idol), family members of Chaka Khan, family members of Patricia Arquette, family member of John August.

For more information regarding vocal instruction, please go to www.dianepostell.com

Ms. Postell has clients all over the US via Skype.

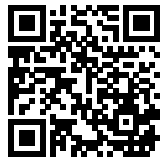

Here's what students say about Ms. Postell:

"I have had 7 sessions with Diane and immediately felt the difference in my voice. I have more control, I'm able to sing longer because I'm singing correctly and the best thing is she is able to teach in a way that is easily understood! Which means you pick it up faster...love her!" Amanda W. Los Angeles, CA

"When I first met Ms. Diane, I knew she was right for me. She is open to what I want to learn and yet will still give me her thoughts. A few techniques she has given me that has really helped are opening my mouth wider, rounding my vowels and pushing the sound back. Out of all of the piano and vocal instructors I've had, she is the best one." Savannah P. (aged 12) Los Angeles, CA
