Hello,

This is hard for me and quite literally a last resort. However I am in need of help.

My husband and I are both working overtime (In my case working 2 jobs) just in order to make ends meet. We both are in the care taking field and yet barely make minimum wage. We manage to scrape by paycheck to paycheck, but the problem is we were down to only one car, having to work out this much work so that we each had rides to and from where we needed to be. It was difficult as it was however the cars engine light has come on and it has begun over heating. We fear it doesn't have much life left in it as it is, but we can't afford to fix what is wrong with it let alone a new car. and without the car we both will be at risk of loosing our jobs. Its especially hard with the holidays and the fact I'm enrolled to go back to college soon. I hate asking for help but we are officially desperate. If there is a kind soul out there willing to help us it would mean everything. Any help in any way is greatly appreciated. Thank you for taking the time to read this, and God bless. Happy.
