Hey fellow Craig's listers, wondering if anyone in East Oakland found some keys, specifically between Seminary and 78th ave on either Foothill Blvd or MacArthur.

Description:

There are 3 keys on a tiny padlock, acting as a keyring, connected to a Green leopard print lanyard. Also a small amount of copper wire is wrapped around the padlock.

Reward:

I don't have much being a convicted felon and a recovering heroin addict, who is currently unemployed. (I'm Not A Stereotype, Just Recently Relapsed & Lost Everything) So, I can't guarantee an exact $ amount but I will give something, maybe 10$ or 2 cigarettes. LOL. Also, if for some insane reason you discover where I live and feel the need to burglarize it, keep in mind my most valuable possession is a Ryobi drill gun.

Thanks Guys & Gals,
