This is updated from my original post a few days ago.

90% of the 30 replies were incomplete.

The reason I ask for your age is because I don't want to hire or waste time with someone who has no experience. Someone 18 to 21 has zero to very little experience.

Would rather have someone with 10 years experience or more.

Area you live is important because I don't want to pay extra for hrs of drive time and I am sure there is a lot of local qualified people who would love this job.

Sorry, I cant pay nor was I looking for companys who want $4 to $5000 for 3 days work.

And last I did get a couple of good replies and hopefully one will work out but

I am asking to work on a holiday vacation period and since it is still 3 weeks away and this is craigslist, I just want to have a few backup numbers just in case....

So If your interested after reading the intire ad, please reply correctly as requested.

I am helping a friend finish his basement. Ceiling is 8 ft high and we need help hanging 30) 4x8 sheets of sheetrock on the ceiling.

No tools required, but if you have all the required tools and you work as a finisher now its a huge plus.

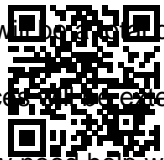

I am looking for a skilled person that also has excellent finishing skills.

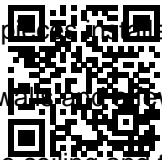

There will be a total of 80 pieces installed and 100 pieces finished.
50 pieces of exterior wall and 30 interior.

We only need help with the ceiling and the finishing. Hoping to find someone that has finished thousands of sheets. Highly skilled and efficient. This means it will be very little sanding and only a few days.

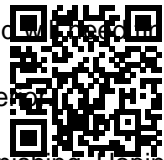

We both work full time so we want the help on our holiday vacation that is going to be between December 29 to Sunday January 3rd.

Please send me your first name, area you live in, age, phone number and skill level along with your desired hourly rate to help hang the rock (30 on the ceiling and it will be 3 of us) and hourly rate for you to finish all of it from taping to skimming, hopefully little to no sanding. about 80 sheets.

I usually get a few disgruntal people when I advertise on here. Not sure why, but if your one of them who just want to be angry at the world, please, No need to reply.

If you don't send all required information (ALL) your mail will be deleted.
