Located one block south of Town Square, you can park your car and walk to the shops and restaurants. It's also a short walk from shuttle rides to Jackson Hole Mountain Resort in both town square and on Pearl & Jackson.

Dinner trail rides and the one-of-a-kind Cowboy Bar will transport you to the Old West. The Jackson Hole ski complex, one mile from the resort, covers more than 3,000 acres of varying terrain and includes runs up to five miles long. Other winter activities include guided cross-country tours and snow-coach trips through the area by Yellowstone National

Jackson Hole offers some of the world-class skiing. Jackson Hole Mountain Resort, located 11 miles from the town of Jackson in Teton Village, boasts one of the longest, steepest continuous vertical drops of any area in North America. Snow King Resort, known as the town hill, offers night skiing, lunch and tickets, a terrain park, and a tubing park, all on one very skiable, consistent pitch. Snow King is the ski area you will see from resort or while standing in the town square or strolling along the boardwalks of Jackson. Grand Targhee Resort is located about 75 minutes by car from Jackson. The Targhee Express offers daily roundtrip shuttle service from Jackson to Grand Targhee Resort.
