Long ago, I had a greyhound bus trip from La to Chicago via Denver. In that trip, about 3 hours or so before Denver our bus made a break stop in a very beautiful but small valley which had a fast food shop and a restaurant or two and it was completely surrounded by pyramid shape high mountains each of different colors like red, green, yellow etc (maybe it was fall color)..... I'd like to know the name or address of that wonderful valley/place so that I can see it in the webany help from???
