The screenshot shows the MindSumo platform. At the top, there's a search bar, a 'CHALLENGES' button, and a notification bell. The user 'Brittany Long' is logged in with a balance of '$160'. Below the header, a main challenge is displayed: 'Design a mould system to make fun-shaped bite-sized ice creams' with a '$1000 in rewards' offer. Below this, there's a message from 'International Food Manufacturer'. A red banner at the bottom encourages users to 'Visit the challenges area for reviews and see student challenges'. The main content area shows several other challenges with images and details:

- Shake up the vehicle ownership model (Anonymous Autos): 26 participants, $50 x 5 winners, $150 x 5 runners-up.
- Create a compelling new way to experience the internet of everything (MintShaw Management): 19 participants, $50 x 5 winners, $150 x 5 runners-up.
- Propose a unique and useful GoPro accessory (Best Buy): 10 participants, $50 x 5 winners, $150 x 5 runners-up.
- How will virtual reality change consumer experiences in the future? (EV): 6 participants, $50 x 5 winners, $150 x 5 runners-up.
