Need help with a resume!?

I offer a professional resume service that will help you get into your next career.

I have almost a decade of experience in management, consulting, staffing and resume writing. I also provide consultation on interviewing, cover letters and conducting interviews. I know what companies look for and what they want!!!

How I differ: Simple. I look at your work history and build your resume based on your talents.

Prices range anywhere from $50 on up dependent on what you need.

Contact me for more information (free 10 minute consultation included)
