Hey there Craigslist people, looking to either put together or get in touch with a hard rock cover/original/variety band. Sorry, not looking to join a costumed tribute band or scream-o band, just looking to get out and entertain the crowd with familiar music they can all dance to and have a good time with. Not a twenty-something anymore so I'm not looking to get out a party my ass off anymore, but I'm not an old fogey either, some classic rock is cool but I don't wanna be singing songs that my parents were busy "making me" to. Let's stick to what will never go out of style. GnR, Aerosmith, Def Lep, AC/DC, Poison, Quiet Riot, Twisted Sister, you know... the bitchin 80's and 90's stuff, throw some 2000's in there for good measure, maybe a few originals here and there and let's see what happens. I've got some originals that I have already recorded and it needs to be re-done with some more oomph added to it. Let's sit down and talk, there's some money to be made and some fun to be had.
