LESSONS OFFERED WITH A SKILLED, EXPERIENCED AND PATIENT TEACHER As a professional violinist and violist for over 20 years my orchestral experience includes The Savannah Symphony, The Michigan Opera Theater, The Chicago Chamber Orchestra, The Toledo Symphony and many others. I have had a variety of teaching positions including teaching privately for nearly 30 years, public schools, private schools and various workshops for students of all ages! I specialize in individualized and patience based sessions. I am a music coach and technique expert. I love helping students achieve their goals! Whether you are a beginner or have years of playing experience my sessions will provide information and guidance, attained from a lifetime of performing and teaching. I attended The University of Michigan and The Manhattan School of Music where I studied under Jacob Krachmalnik and Raphael Bronnstein.
