I'm driving from Los Angeles/OC to Bayarea/San Francisco on Sunday , december 27th

I can pick and drop you from door to door. I plan to drive in the morning here's a little about me: I'm friendly, clean, mellow, into many types of music and conversation. I've done a lot of rideshares for many years and every time has been great.

tell me a little about you and where u want to go and we can make a plan. gas will be 40 bucks per person. I am driving a Mercedes benz 300 so it will be a comfortable ride. I have on spot available in the car
