I have a female bullmastiff three years old. She's had 3 litters of puppies and is AKC registered. I'm trying to find her a loving forever home I need someone who is willing to spend time with her she loves kids we have two cats and she tries to step on them and snap at them. I work all day Monday-Friday and have four children in school its just not fair for her to be in her kennel all day she needs someone who has time for her and can work with her she is kennel trained and will go potty outside. She doesn't like to stay outside very long when she comes inside she just likes to lay around. Her name is Paris and she is not very big she don't like to be on a leash at all. We are in the process of moving as well and we will not have a fenced yard and she needs a fence because she won't go on a leash she acts kinda scared around men. I have her papers I just have to find them in storage. I will have to probably mail them to her new parents as soon as I find them. She is not up to date on her shots and needs her toenails cut. I'm not asking for any rehoming fee just someone who can take care of her and give her the love and attention she deserves. We are moving next weekend so I would like to find Paris a home before we move
