There are an array of photo shoots being held each day in this billion dollar industry. In today's industry models are constantly being sought after. All this leads us here looking for you. With the industry constantly growing we need to find someone to help us meet our clients needs. Our company can provide our models with a variety of gigs each week to choose from, which allows our models to work as much as they want. We also cover all travel expenses as well as provide 5 star accommodation. We are currently accepting applications from women 18-23 with a petite or slender body type. Currently no experience is required since our staff will be on site assisting you. We also have several gigs for young beautiful African American female models. Gigs start paying @ $1,500. All applicants should have a bubbly personality and be motivated to work. If this sounds like something for you please contact us via email: 4 clear full body photographs, contact info, and date of birth.
