If your child is interested in acting and have limited to no experience they may want to consider getting a role in several of our short films starting Jan 9th. We're the Dreamality Corporation and we help make dreams a reality for kids through entertainment. We will give your child all the assistance they need to do their best at the role their selected for. We have completed several of these short films for kids and is looking to complete 8 movie making projects in 2016. If your child participate in one of our movies they will be invited to a red carpet movie premier, receive a certificate of completion and possible nomination at our first annual kids award show.

You can visit our website also at www . thedreamalitycorp dot com

This is a great way to start your child off in acting. Please send us your name, child's name, age, your email, and contact number. Send us a photo if you have one but not mandatory.

We will respond with more.
