QR Code Link to This Post Hello, I am a 28 year old nanny. I am looking for a part or full time job as a nanny.

I have been primarily doing childcare since 2011. I have a lot of great references. Pediatric CPR/First Aid Certified

I am constantly working to be the best I can be and will do everything I can to make sure the time that I spend with your children is enriching.

I do not drive but am saavy on public transit and I love biking and walking and get around very easily.

I also have quite a few piercings and an alternative look so if that is a problem I'm sadly not the right nanny for you:

That being said, thank you for your time and I hope to hear from you soon!
