QR Code Link to This Post I am currently 6 1/2 months pregnant and single. I am staying in a hotel with my mom until we receive her check on the 7th we currently have today paid for but tomorrow is closer than imaginable. I am in dire need of cash assistance towards the room until we receive our help on the 7th. Also basic needs , baby items or anything to help the situation in general I would be extremely grateful for. Thank you and have a blessed day .
