QR Code Link to This Post I am a Bay Area based Spanish Translator.

I provide English to Spanish translations with a punch, delivering not only your texts but your ideas as well. I am well versed in a variety of fields. I have been translating technical papers, accounting and financial texts, software, immigration certificates, adoption letters, books, movie scripts and official foreign documents since 1993. During my long career I even worked translating documents for the military and creating movie subtitles! When I translate from English to Spanish I am very accurate and I proofread my work until I get a good sense of what's been said, according to who's going to read it and the context of the document. I also translate from Spanish to English with the same high quality results.

My clients, from all different paths of life, consider me a great asset for their businesses.

What is so special about my English to Spanish translations? My localization skills. Besides my accuracy, I am able to apply to these translations the neutralism of standard Spanish or specific Spanish-speaking countries.

I have translated English into Castilian and also to Spanish from Puerto Rico, Ecuador, Colombia, Peru, Chile, Mexico and Argentina. When I translate from English to Spanish I am very accurate and I proofread my work until I get a good sense of what's been said, according to who's going to read it and the context of the document. I also translate from Spanish to English with the same high quality results.
