QR Code Link to This Post Who am I? I am a credit, mortgage and real estate consultant with approximately eight years experience in helping everyday folks dig themselves out financial holes when bad times hit. I will be launching my own consulting firm in the Spring of 2017 but in the meantime, I want to keep helping people, keep my skills sharp, and do so at a rate FAR below what you'll find anywhere else.

Aside from the details on the flyer here:

- All consultations are 100% free, whether in person or over the phone. Many times the consultation will be all that's needed if I discover a few simple changes you can make.
- If I take you on as a client, everything is in writing and done via DocuSign to save time and paperwork.
- All payments are processed via PayPal for your security and mine.
- Any and all conversations and information discussed is 100% confidential.

Interested? Want to get a head start on your financial goals for 2017? Drop me a line and/or give me a call.
