"I for one, hope the Dems teach the stupid Republicans a lesson and tie everything up in both the House and Senate."

They can't dumb fuck they don't have any power in neither the House or the Senate. Just like in 2006 through 2010 when the Democrats forced Obamacare through against the will of the American people the Republicans didn't have the House and the Senate and could not stop them and keep them from collapsing our economy which, they conveniently lied about as well.
