CALL:

Sometimes life gets ahead of you.

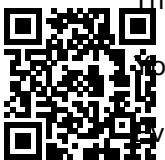

Things may get out of control for awhile.

Your one day of sweat, hard work and hard hours in your office has turned into a total disaster zone!

Everywhere you look, there is a mess.

The dishwasher just broke. Or, maybe, it just left town. It RAN AWAY.
And, your laundry has taken on an entirely new life, completely of its own.

From the corner of one eye ~
Here it is again.

You see what you NOW discover as the 'flying clothes' --

Another missing PIECE just flew past you !

Wondering and drifting CLOTHES all around your house, underneath beds, chairs, and stuck in between the sofa and cushions!

YES! It is 'an invasion'

As you rest sitting, reading at your computer today, right now

Awh -- a sigh, a deep breath, a 'slight impulse', a sign 'of life' COMMUNICATING & Reaching out to you from cyber space -- a new era, a new generation, a new thought, into a new beginning, on Planet Earth (the Beautiful BLUE Pearl)

The Thought

The Hope

The Wish

Comes True

"Cleaning this dirty house, apartment, office, etc."

Giving this some deep-thought now ~ but, only because one of the flying socks caught your eye as it passed you by ~ while you're sitting here reading this ...

You suddenly realize this always happening to you, especially when you least expect it or

When you are not looking closely, or paying close enough attention to what's going on inside your own home and all around you!

Life gets in the way of living healthily and safely inside your living space, home sweet home.

Stinky old dirty socks and clothes end up landing on top of countertops, the sofas and chairs, and blocking stairways, covering beds, and floors.

Now, Dust balls and dust bunnies join the dirty clothes & socks brigade

Attracting along many of the other unwanted and many of the non-invited guests, as they all together Gather with an array of unsightly and unkind -- growling, growling, and accumulating cob-webs!

Life is 'Thriving' Everywhere

Where it Shouldn't Be

Inside of Your ONCE

Clean, Organized, Sanatary

HOME

Awh.....

Together these 'dirties' try hiding everywhere through out your house, in corners, dangling, as they manage to stick to and on ceilings, in doorways, on door knobs, and somehow they even manage, hiding underneath beds!

YIPS!

Yes, every so often this commonly known thing,
