Then this gig may be for you!

We're a small startup and are looking for TWO females! If you're a model, influencer, brand ambassador, then this gig is for you! This is for the upcoming CES show in Las Vegas. We prefer you're local to the area, upbeat, reliable, fun, friendly, diverse and active!

We're coming from Los Angeles and we will provide clothing, shoes and accessories, so we are recruiting early to receive your correct measurements. We are picking before Friday!!

Notes:

- The BA needs to be socially active in medias such as Instagram, Snapchat, Twitter or Facebook to help us host a contest on site for a daily giveaway!
 - The BA needs to be able to walk and mingle one hour a day or so in a field marketing event throughout the show. You have to be able to lift and carry up to 15lbs and be active to walk and mingle!

- Parking and lunch will not be included, however, we will provide coffee, water, healthy snacks throughout the day and the duration of the show.
 - Depending on the days, we may release you way early, but you will still be paid the full day!
 - You don't need to do any kind of setup or taking off a booth, so don't worry about that. That's taken care off by another company.

Please, submit your portfolio, link, Instagram or whatever you think would be helpful! We are choosing this week and prepare for a Skype call or phone call!

PS: LAS VEGAS RESIDENTS ONLY!! :)
